Terms and Conditions

1. Pupils will be given a copy of the school rules on arrival. The rules have to be observed. Serious or repeated breaches of the rules, as well as damage to the reputation of the school in public can lead to immediate exclusion from the school. This decision lies at the discretion of the School Management.
2. In the case of exclusion or discontinuation for other reasons, there will be no refund of the course fee. The meal costs of 11.40 € per day will be refunded.
3. Cancellation of the contract before the course is not possible. We recommend taking out travel insurance, which will cover the cost in the event of illness. Suitable policies can be found at: <http://www.hmr.de> or www.elvia.de.
4. In the case of damage or destruction of property, the pupils who cause the damage, must bear the cost of replacement or repair. Parents are responsible for their children.
5. No liability is accepted for persons and their property, caused to themselves or others during the Summer School. This disclaimer also applies to Employees during the Summer School. Excluded are damages caused by intent or gross negligence of the operator or his staff.
6. For loss, destruction and damage to belongings that are brought to the school the Kurpfalz Internat will only accept liability in the case of gross negligence of the operator or the persons employed in the summer school. Money and valuables can be deposited in the office.
7. The previously mentioned parties shall be liable for all obligations under this contract. Students over 18 also agree to the contract.
8. The course fee includes accommodation, three meals and a snack per day, three taught lessons and three supervised homework lessons per day, the free use of existing recreational facilities and the recreational program (with supplements for certain activities).
9. The course fee is to be paid 10 days before the course into the following account at the Heidelberger Volksbank or in cash on arrival:
IBAN: DE34672900000000286800
BIC: GENODE61HD1
10. Pocket money for personal use and possibly for books is essential. This is paid into a pupil's account held by the Kurpfalz Internat. This also helps to prevent theft.
11. The use of vehicles without the approval of the school can lead to exclusion, as can actions and the possession of objects and materials that endanger the safety or integrity of students. Pupils who travel to school in their own vehicle must hand their key to their Boarding Tutor during the week.
12. Foreign students or students whose parents reside abroad are subject to German Law.
